FR. JIM'S JOTS

Greetings!!

You're invited and needed to help this Saturday, November 12th, from 9 to 12pm. We will be cleaning the Church, Parish Hall, and the office/Rectory. Many hands make for light work. I will be present at the beginning of the clean – up day but need to leave and go the Roslyn Center for the retreat for the Office of Black Catholics.

Advent starts soon and the new liturgical year begins “ Reading God’s Word” for Church Year A will be on sale in the back of the church for $10.00 each. These will be available on November 6th and 13th, after the Masses. Copies are limited so please get your book soon. Also we have “the Little Blue Book” for Advent, they are free.

Save the Date! We will be celebrating the communal sacrament of Reconciliation on December 17th, at 12 noon. Please plan on attending. I have invited several priests from the area to help with this special sacrament of forgiveness. Lunch will be provided.

Reminder to arrive early for our Centennial Mass on November 20th, 2022. We will have only one Mass at 9 am. We are asking all parishioners who want to attend in-person to please arrive EARLY.

Blessings,
Fr. Jim

CONTACT INFO UPDATE:

St. Elizabeth is currently working on updating parishioner contact info. If your email, phone number, or mailing address has changed recently or has not been updated in our directory, please contact your Parish Council Representative. Your “Rep” will forward this information to the Parish Office.

Loving our Neighbors at Overby-Sheppard Elementary School

For many years, St. Elizabeth has had a friendly and supportive relationship with Overby-Sheppard Elementary School, just a few blocks from our church. For health reasons, our liaison to the school needs to pass the baton to another parishioner. Will you consider this important outreach ministry, which involves some activities two or three times a year? If so, then please see or contact Deacon Chris. Special thanks to Marie Masse who has led this ministry the past several years.

GENTLE REMINDERS:

Please wear a face covering and silence your cell phones before entering the church.

Parents: As a reminder, you are required to escort any child, 12 years and under, downstairs to the restrooms and remain with them until their return
