
Proposed Campaign Investment:

Greater Mission will provide 6 days of service to conduct the mini- Feasibility Mini-Study over a 5-week period. Six days will be onsite and two remote days for research and writing the study report. The Campaign fees listed are based on 8 days of service over a four-month period. Greater Mission will provide 8 days of on-site professional services in support of the Capital Campaign per month. Greater Mission proposes to start the mini-study after Labor Day 2024 and the four month campaign after the completion of the mini-study in early to mid-October.

Mini-Feasibility Study Fees: (includes the Capacity Analysis)	$5,000
Campaign Counsel Fees:	$48,000
Estimated Expenses: (including, but not limited to, travel, lodging, food, printing, and postage)	$7,000
Total Investment:	$60,000

The Feasibility Mini-Study Fee would be payable in equal installments over a two-month period. Campaign Fees will be paid in five installments and billed equally per month for the extent of the service agreement which will be billed on the 10th of the month. Expenses will be documented and billed at cost monthly. Based on a goal of $1 million the cost per dollar raised for the study and campaign is six cents (including expenses) well below the $.12 to $.15 cents per dollar raised used to gain the highest ratings from numerous charity evaluation websites.

Termination of Services:

Either party may terminate this Agreement at any time by giving the other party 30 days' written notice of termination. If the Client terminates this Agreement, the Client shall pay Greater Mission for all work performed and for all expense incurred prior to the effective date of termination.

Confidentiality:

All information will be held as strictly confidential and will be either returned to the church, deleted, or destroyed at the end of the process by Greater Mission staff, unless there is further service to the church provided by Greater Mission requiring the ongoing use of that information.
